

Microsoft
HoloLens

Tool Overview

Microsoft HoloLens is a pair of mixed reality glasses that simulate holograms that fit into the user's field of vision. It is a device that you put on your head, with a visor over your eyes, which allows a whole new way of interacting with information.

Improve their collaborations and the mutual job during maintenance interventions

Allows the expert in a smartroom to be aware of the situation in real time and to be able to make a diagnosis

Benefits & Applications

- Avoid costly field visits, reducing service costs
- Limit loss of time by being more efficient
- Allows experts to know the situation on board in real time
- Limit errors when preparing spare parts
- Allows to improve the quality of service of the operations
- Capability to record a sequence of troubleshooting to coach technician

52°

Degrees field of view

47px

Pixels resolution per degree